

APPLICATION FOR A RESIDENCE PERMIT BASED ON WORK

Please fill out this form carefully and remember to sign it. An application form that is not filled out in a satisfactory manner may result in delays of the procedure or in the application being denied.

Please choose the residence permit you apply for (you can only check one option):

- Residence permit requiring expert knowledge
- Shortage of workers
- Athletes
- Collaboration and service contracts

Qualified professionals seeking work

Applies to applications for renewal of a residence permit of a qualified professional who has lost his/her job for as long as three (3) months since loss of job or the time his/her employment-termination notice has passed, in order to enable the relevant person seeking other employment on grounds of his/her qualifications.

For whom is the application form?

The form is only intended for individuals aged 18 or older who have acquired employment in Iceland.

What documents must accompany the application?

See further information on the website of the Directorate of Immigration about the requirements for accompanying documents and data regarding renewal of residence permits.

- Passport photograph (35 mm x 40 mm).
- Photocopy of the passport
- Copy of a foreign criminal record certificate.
- Translation by an authorized translator of a criminal record certificate if applicable.
- Medical-expense insurance.
- Application for appropriate work permit.
- Employment contract.

How is an application submitted?

An application may be submitted and paid for at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at the office of a district commissioner outside of the Reykjavík Capital Area. If the applicant is in Iceland he/she must appear in person. If an application is sent by mail a payment receipt must be enclosed.

The applicant must appear in person when applying for renewal of his/her residence permit, either at the reception area of the Directorate of Immigration or at offices of district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík Capital Area. The applicant will be photographed and must submit a sample of his/her signature. The applicant should bring his/her passport along.

Please note that if the applicant submits an application in person he/she should bring his/her passport along.

Information about the processing fee

A fee must be paid for the processing of the application for a residence permit. The application will not be processed without payment. An application that has not been paid for will be returned to the applicant. Further information about the processing fee is in part 13 of the application form and also on the website of the Directorate of Immigration.

Objectives regarding time of procedure and process

The Directorate of Immigration expedites as possible its processing of applications in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act no. 37/1993. If the applicant provides all the required information in the application form and submits satisfactory accompanying documents with the application, the processing of the application will take less time.

The Directorate of Immigration contacts the applicant or his/her representative if further documents are needed for processing the application.

Please note that the reception-desk personnel of the Directorate of Immigration do not assess applications or accompanying documents.

Rights attached to the permit

Work requiring expert knowledge

- The applicant may stay in Iceland while applying for the permit and while it is being processed provided that his/her visa is valid and his/her stay in the Schengen Area does not exceed 90 days in the past 180 day period.
- The applicant may not begin working before a work permit has been granted and he/she may not work for other employer than the one on which the work permit is granted.
- A residence permit may be granted for up to two (2) years, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- A residence permit may be renewed for as long as two (2) years at a time, provided the requirements of the permit are still being met, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- A residence permit of an applicant who has lost his/her job may be renewed for as long as three (3) months from the date of unemployment or the time when the employment-termination period has passed, to enable the applicant to find new employment on grounds of his/her qualifications/expertise.
- A renewed residence permit must be applied for at least four (4) weeks before the permit's period of validity expires.
- The residence permit contains a right to family reunification for the applicant's spouse or cohabitant after at least one year of cohabitation, applicant's children younger than 18 years old and applicant's parents who are 67 years of age or older.
- The residence permit can be the basis of a permanent residence permit.

Shortage of workers

- An applicant to whom a visa requirement applies may not be in Iceland when applying for the permit and while the application is being processed. An applicant who is exempt from the visa requirement may be in the country when applying for the permit and during its processing for as long as the non-visa requirement applies.
- The applicant may not begin working before a work permit has been granted and he/she may not work for other employer than the one on which the work permit is granted.
- A first residence permit may be granted for up to one (1) year, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- A residence permit may be renewed for up to one (1) year at a time, provided the permit's requirements are still met, however, not longer than the validity period of the work permit.
- A renewed residence permit must be applied for at least four (4) weeks before the permit's period of validity expires.
- If a renewal of application is not submitted before the former permit expires it will result in a gap in the continuity of the applicant's permit and a permit on these grounds cannot be reissued until the applicant has stayed abroad continuously for two (2) years effective from the end of the permit's period of validity.

- The residence permit does not contain a right to family reunification.
- The residence permit can be the basis of a permanent residence permit.

Athletes

- The applicant may stay in Iceland while applying for the permit and while it is being processed provided that his/her visa is valid and his/her stay in the Schengen Area does not exceed 90 days in the past 180 day period.
- The applicant may not begin working before a work permit has been granted and he/she may not work for other employer than the one on which the work permit is granted.
- The first residence permit may be granted for up to one (1) year, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- A residence permit may be renewed for as long as two (2) years at a time, provided the requirements of the permit are still being met, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- A renewed residence permit must be applied for at least four (4) weeks before the permit's period of validity expires.
- The residence permit contains a right to family reunification for the applicant's spouse or cohabitant after at least one year of cohabitation, applicant's children younger than 18 years old and applicant's parents who are 67 years of age or older.
- The residence permit can be the basis of a permanent residence permit.

Collaboration and service contracts

- The applicant may stay in Iceland while applying for the permit and while it is being processed provided that his/her visa is valid and his/her stay in the Schengen Area does not exceed 90 days in the past 180 day period.
- The applicant may not begin working before a work permit has been granted and he/she may not work for other employer than the one on which the work permit is granted.
- The residence permit may be granted for as long as six (6) months, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- The residence permit may be renewed for up to six (6) months on grounds of the same contract, however, not longer than the period of validity of the work permit.
- A renewed residence permit must be applied for at least four (4) weeks before the permit's period of validity expires.
- The residence permit does not contain a right to family reunification. The residence permit cannot be the basis of a permanent residence permit.

10. Additional information

If you have further information of significance regarding your application for a residence permit in Iceland, kindly state it here in the box below.

11. Visa

Applies only to applicants for first residence permit.

If you need a visa to come to Iceland, where do you wish to obtain the visa?

If your application is accepted, the Directorate of Immigration may send a request for a D-visa to Danish or Norwegian embassies representing Iceland and as listed on the websites of the Directorate of Immigration and the Icelandic embassies in China and Russia.

12. Applicant's representative

An applicant may only have one representative at any time. An applicant wishing to replace his/her representative must submit a form to this effect to the Directorate of Immigration. If an applicant wishes to withdraw his/her authorization for representation, the applicant must send a written notification to the Directorate of Immigration stating such change. Please note that the representative may not sign the application.

Check the box regarding authorizations

I realize that all communication (including correspondence) with the Directorate of Immigration will be with my representative and that the representative will have access to the information and data in my application.

I realize that my representative, not I, will receive information about the conclusion of my application.

- I authorize the following individual to represent me regarding this application,
- to receive documents on my behalf,
- to appeal a decision by the Directorate of Immigration to the Immigration and Asylum Appeals Board in the event of my application being refused.

13. Processing fee

The Directorate of Immigration and district commissioners outside of the Reykjavik Capital Area receive applications for residence permits in return for the payment of a service fee. The amount of the fee is decided in the Act no.88/1991 on Additional Revenues of the National Treasury.

If the processing fee is not paid, the application will not be processed. An application that has not been paid for will be returned to the applicant.

An application may be submitted on behalf of the applicant and paid for at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at the offices of district commissioners outside of the Reykjavik Capital Area. A payment receipt must accompany an application sent by mail and if the applicant is in Iceland, he/she must appear in person.

Please note that if the applicant submits an application in person he/she should bring his/her passport along.

See further information on the website of the Directorate of Immigration (www.utl.is).

14. Did you remember everything?

If the application form is correctly filled out and accompanied by all relevant data, this will expedite the application's procedure. It is therefore important that you check whether your application is well filled out, whether correct information is stated and whether you have submitted all necessary data.

The Directorate of Immigration recommends that you use the checklist below to ensure that your application is satisfactory.

The Directorate of Immigration may request additional data if it feels there is a need to examine whether the requirements for a residence permit are met.

15. Applicant's checklist for a first permit

18. Date and signature

I hereby apply for an Icelandic residence permit and confirm with my signature that the information I have stated in this application form, in annexes and the enclosed documents as being true and correct. I understand that giving misleading or false information to public authorities is punishable according to the Icelandic Penal Code No. 19/1940, and could result in denial or withdrawal of a residence permit and possibly expulsion on grounds of the Act on Foreigners No. 80/2016. Violations of the Act on Foreigners are reported to the police.

I am informed of it being permissible to integrate data held by the Directorate of Immigration, the Immigration and Asylum Appeals Board, Registers Iceland and the police according to the Act on Foreigners. The Directorate of Immigration is furthermore authorized to obtain information from the tax authorities, the Directorate of Labor and the municipal social services according to the same law.

I am furthermore informed of how the Directorate of Immigration may obtain further information if necessary because of this application and as provided for by the Data Protection Act no. 77/2000.

I realize that the information I provide might be used regarding the processing of subsequent applications and/or applications of family members.

I am informed that the Directorate of Immigration forwards data to Registers Iceland as necessary for registration in Registers Iceland.

I agree to undergo medical examination within two weeks from arrival in Iceland according to applicable law and as instructed by health authorities.
